Research agent and toolchain assurance

Review how research agents interact with tools, data, and human approval points within authorized systems.

Scope of work

- Agent workflow and tool-access inventory
- Human oversight and authorization-boundary review
- Controlled evaluation against agreed requirements
- Findings mapped to ownership and remediation priority

Workflow

01 Map the agent workflow
Document intended tasks, connected tools, data, and human decision points.

02 Review permissions and boundaries
Assess stated access controls, approvals, and operational responsibilities.

03 Evaluate agreed requirements
Conduct controlled checks within the authorized systems and methods.

04 Document observations
Record results, evidence, limitations, and relevant workflow context.

05 Prioritize improvements
Assign practical next steps to the teams responsible for the system.

Applications
Research agents, scientific toolchains, and human-in-the-loop workflows.

Scope note
Testing is limited to systems and actions explicitly authorized for the engagement.
